3 ---oOo---

4 THE CLERK: Calling case number C12-1527; Cornerstone
5 Staffing Solutions v. James.

6 And counsel, please state your appearances.

7 MR. HIX: Good afternoon, your Honor. Clayton Hix,
8 H-i-x, for Cornerstone, et al.

9 MR. ARENA: Good morning, your Honor. Paul Arenas
10 representing Larry James, Deploy Hr, and Batton, Inc.

11 MR. MARRON: Your Honor, Paul Marron for the same
12 defendants.

13 THE COURT: Okay. It's all worked out; right? No?
14 Pretty much.

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Some yes; some no.

16 THE COURT: Pretty much.

17 Well, I have in my hand the docket number 293, which was 18 your latest update of the meet and confer letters. Which one
19 of those items listed in there do we need to talk about?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, your Honor, I think we 21 need to talk about all of them, I think.

22 THE COURT: Okay. So --

23 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Unfortunately.

24 THE COURT: -- let me start with you. You understand
25 how this looks from this side of the bench? You understand

1 that you've all lost credibility with me; you've all lost
2 credibility with Judge Seeborg; and the more you do this, the
3 more you lose credibility with both of us. You understand
4 that?

5 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We understand, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You understand that's number one.

7 Number two is that credibility is key to going forward with
8 this case. Key. Because we actually have to make judgment
9 calls along the way. I do on the discovery; more obvious
10 judgement calls. More subtle judgment calls, Judge Seeborg 11 makes.

12 In making those judgment calls, we rely on the lawyers.
13 When the lawyers lose credibility with us, they lose the 14 ability to persuade us and you hurt your clients by this 15 fashion.

16 So for example, there's nothing key to the case in this
17 pile of -- I don't know what it is -- about 300, 400 pages?
18 There's nothing key to anyone's case in this pile. Nothing.
19 Zero.

20 There are nuances; there may be some mildly interesting
21 stuff; there may be stuff that may lead to some interesting
22 stuff. There's nothing that's central to the case.

23 That you would devote this kind of energy to hurting your 24 credibility in the pursuit of this is just bizarre.

25 So with that predicate, let's go through and I'll tell you

1 what my rulings are.

2 Number one, Larry James' discovery issue; A, examination of 3 Luke Goetz. Denied. It's outside the agreed upon scope of the 4 deposition for Mr. Goetz.

5 Number two, issues raised in Mr. Anderson's --
6 Ms. Anderson's depo. This has to do with net worth. Denied.
7 Punitive damages are not properly sought against Ms. Anderson.
8 But in any event, you asked for things that are very old; 2002,
9 2003. Those are not the current net worth.

10 Subdivision C. Missing Cornerstone financial documents.
11 What exactly is still missing, if anything?

12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, I'll speak to 13 that, your Honor. Before --

14 THE COURT: Why do you get to pick?

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yeah, I don't understand how
16 he could possibly speak to that, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: See this is -- you people are both
18 ridiculous. You do understand how this looks? How can you
19 expect us to take you seriously on the important issues in the 20 case when you both take ridiculous positions on the less
21 important issues in this case. It is astonishing. You
22 obviously need a lesson in how to persuade a Federal Judge.
23 Proceed.

24 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, we want -- gone
25 through it. We did get some late productions in March.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And then --

3 THE COURT: Yes.

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- we've looked at those and
5 they were still short.

6 THE COURT: Of what? What exactly is missing?

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Referring to the missing
8 documents chart, which is attached to docket 276.

9 THE COURT: Just give me -- tell me the exact item
10 that you think you're missing.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We're missing the 2009 January
12 through December profit loss statements by Branch.

13 THE COURT: 2009, January through December profit and 14 loss statements by Branch. Uh-huh. Anything else?

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: 2013, January to the present
16 profit loss statements by Branch.

17 THE COURT: Uh-huh. 2013 -- yes -- to present.
18 2013 -- to the end of the year, you mean; January to December?

19 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Detailed general ledger 2003
22 for the whole year. We've actually -- strike that, your Honor.
23 We received December of 2003, but none of the others.

24 THE COURT: Detailed general ledger for the -- for 25 January through December 2003. Okay. That it?

1 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We're missing Ms. Bock
2 (phonetic) folder on Larry's automobile. They asserted it
3 doesn't exist. We have witnesses that say it did exist when
4 Mr. James left.

5 THE COURT: Well, so what? You don't get -- you
6 don't -- you don't -- I'm not going to order to compel anything
7 that they say doesn't exist. I'm not.

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We're missing invoices created
9 by Cornerstone and they were created by Rebecca Sheer
10 (phonetic) and Mel Bock (phonetic) to all of the defendant
11 entities; all years needed.

12 And in fairness, your Honor; on April 7th, they made
13 available 72 boxes of APAR documents, which we think some of 14 this may be in there.

15 THE COURT: No, no. Okay. That I'm not allowing.
16 So all of this may be in there?

17 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, your Honor, they made it
18 available on April 7th. We haven't had the opportunity to look 19 at it.

20 THE COURT: I'm sorry.

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: They dumped it.

22 THE COURT: What's today? It's -- it's April 25th.

23 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: It's -- it's actually being
24 scanned right now. They -- what they did was they presented
25 72 boxes in front of a storage unit. We -- they couldn't go

1 through it there. It was 90 degrees out there. We had no
2 conference room to go through the materials. We were left no
3 choice but to take this to Copy Service Repo; one that they
4 agreed upon. We're not -- according to the agreement with 5 them, we're not allowed to look at the originals. They're in 6 Repo's position. They're being scanned. They're going to be
7 returned back to them. But that whole project is being divided
8 between two repo offices in Oakland and San Francisco. We have 9 not had the opportunity to look at the -- many of those 10 documents as of this date.

11 THE COURT: When is the trial in this case?

12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: May 27th, your Honor. It's 13 been a long haul. This whole case is about financial documents
14 primarily. Well, we're trying to get a simple financial 15 documents and we can't seem to -- they would piecemeal produce
16 those. They would identify base numbers. They were not the 17 accurate base numbers. They --

18 THE COURT: Listen, I think your positions have been 19 ridiculous as often as theirs. I'm not going to listen to any 20 of this who shot John stuff. So that you're clearly incorrect
21 on some things and clearly right on other things. So I'm not 22 going to listen to this "it's all their fault" stuff.

23 But what amuses me is that it is the end of April. You --
24 your pretrial -- your trial stuff is probably due already.
25 You're already preparing for trial and you're arguing about a

1 motion to compel about things that might be in the documents
2 you got produced already. I don't know what you expect me to 3 do.

4 I guarantee you if they say they're already produced and
5 you don't have evidence that they aren't already produced, I'm
6 not ordering them produced.

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, we -- these things
8 were -- there was no reason, your Honor, that they didn't
9 produce and make these documents available to us --

10 THE COURT: I don't care about that.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- when they were requested.

12 THE COURT: That's -- nothing is before me on that.
13 They -- you want to talk to Judge Seeborg about -- say I'm not
14 ready for trial; you want to talk to Judge Seeborg about
15 dismissing their case; or whatever you want to talk to Judge
16 Seeborg about, you go right ahead.

17 I've got a motion to compel. I compel things that I think
18 haven't been produced that I think exist.

19 So in any event, what else? Invoices?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: All right. Yeah, the invoices
21 we don't have. Moving over to attachment eight and missing
22 documents. We don't have accounts receivable; cash receipts;
23 reports; and deposits; backup for deposits; payments posted in 24 Avionte, including electronic deposits from January 2010 to 25 December of 2010.

1 THE COURT: Payments posted in what?

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: January 2010.

3 THE COURT: Posted in -- what is the -- posted --

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Avionte is a payroll services
5 software.

6 THE COURT: A-v-i-a-n-t-e?

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: A-v-i-o-n-t-e.

8 THE COURT: I-o-n-t-e. And payments posted in 9 Avionte for what years?

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: January, 2010 through
11 December, 2010.

12 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

13 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We're still missing deposit
14 backup for May, 2011 through December, 2012. These are --

15 THE COURT: That it?

16 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Oh, no. We're missing credit
17 memos to tech for periods of January through September, 2010;
18 December, 2010; March, 2011 through May, 2011; and June, 2011
19 invoices.

20 THE COURT: Uh-huh.

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We're missing credit memos to 22 Hanbon-PA; Hand -- for the periods of January, 2010 through 23 September 30th, 2010; credit memos for Batton for the 24 October 24th, 2010 through December 31st, 2010; March 13th,
25 2011 through April 24th, 2011; May 22nd, 2011; and June --

1 through June 5th, 2011.

2 We're missing invoices; credit memos for Hand Connecticut
3 for all periods of time. We're missing -- we're missing dated
4 documents for accounts payable; paid bills showing bills paid
5 to Cornerstone workers; compensation carriers; worker's
6 compensation brokers; GMAC; New York Life; Avionte; Dunn &
7 Bradstreet; Career Builder; Hot Jobs; Monster.com -- sorry. Am
8 I going too fast? Micronation --

9 THE COURT: Way too fast. But really, this is the 10 key documents you need at the end of the case?

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, these documents -- the 12 problem with these documents, your Honor --

13 THE COURT: Every bill to Dunn & Bradstreet or 14 whatever it is.

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: They're accusing Mr. James --

16 THE COURT: I know exactly what they're accusing, but
17 the one bill to Dunn & Bradstreet will make the slightest bit
18 of difference in showing whether or not there was any fraud
19 here?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: There was funds going in;
21 funds going out.

22 THE COURT: There's always --

23 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Sometimes --

24 THE COURT: -- funds going in and funds going out.
25 That doesn't mean -- will you just stop? When I'm talking you

1 listen.

2 You have no perspective. That's your problem. Every 3 single little tiny thing is not going to help you show that
4 either there was no fraud by your -- or there was mismanagement
5 by the other side and that's the problem. Not every little 6 piece of paper.

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: No perspective.

9 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: May I be heard on that point?

10 THE COURT: No, you won't. No. I won't hear on 11 that. You people have no perspective on how to prove up a
12 financial case. None.

13 But in any event, what -- are there any more documents?

14 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes.

15 THE COURT: How many more are there that you're going
16 to list?

17 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I have two more, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

19 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: The annual contracts for these
20 entities I was listing. And we're still missing the payments
21 to and from -- Monster.com; Micronation; and the contracts on 22 those.

23 THE COURT: Okay. This is under missing Cornerstone
24 financials. Okay. What's your response on those?

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: With respect to every single

1 item he listed with one exception, we have produced everything
2 in our possession that we have.

3 THE COURT: What's the exception?

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: The 2013 financials to which
5 there's a dispute.

6 THE COURT: Okay. As to 2013 financials, what do you
7 mean there's a dispute?

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, we can contend that
9 since Judge Seeborg's ruling, which -- well, actually, no.

10 They're not relevant. They're claiming that these 20 -- he
11 was fired in March of 2012. They're claiming that the 2013
12 records, which are after he was terminated, will show that
13 Cornerstone was profitable despite his alleged theft.

14 And I'm saying that's not a legal defense to say that you
15 stole, but it was okay because the company was still 16 profitable.

17 THE COURT: Well, no. But it may -- it may show that 18 the company wasn't in -- suffering from the kind of losses that 19 would -- you would expect to con -- no, I think that's wrong.

20 So the ruling on this -- on C is that it's denied, expect
21 for you should produce all the 2013 financials.

22 All right. Okay. D is denied. There's no evidence
23 there's any documents that haven't been produced. D is 24 granted. Post-communications may bear on Ms. Anderson's
25 credibility.

1 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I'm sorry. I'm lost on 2 your --

3 THE COURT: So group communications with the
4 Government agencies --

5 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Docket 278?

6 THE COURT: 278 is granted. 277 is denied. Granted
7 because it may bear on the credibility. Those are 8 communications with respect to what Government agencies with 9 respect to Mr. James. I think 280 --

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I apologize, your Honor. Did
11 279 -- you said E and I wasn't sure which one --

12 THE COURT: Not -- there's no 279.

13 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Fine.

14 THE COURT: So I'm -- what's left on this is 277 is 15 denied; 278 is granted; 280 -- we'll get to 279 at the end
16 because it's Cornerstone's discovery issues.

17 280; discovery requests to Cornerstone. I don't know how 18 this is different than anything we talked about before. This 19 is covered by what we've already done; right?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, there are more -- some 21 of the financial things in there.

22 THE COURT: Well -- but it really is encompassed
23 within the missing Cornerstone financial documents; right?

24 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Not all of it, your Honor.
25 These --

1 THE COURT: So what else was -- is there evidence
2 that was not produced?

3 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Request for production number
4 49 and 50. We requested documents showing that instructions to 5 the lay deposit checks and --

6 THE COURT: Instructions to what?

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: To lay the depositing of 8 checks. These go to those that Mr. James wasn't in complete
9 control of the accounting practices.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Request for production number
12 56 and request for productions number 83, 84, 85, 86, and 89.
13 And this --

14 THE COURT: What are those?

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: These are requests for 16 documents. We believe that perhaps these -- these are APAR
17 documents that we've been requesting.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And then James' interrogatory
20 number two documents --

21 THE COURT: Oh, we're not -- we're not to the -- oh,
22 I see. Wait. No. That's not -- that's not docket 280.
23 That's docket 281. All right.

24 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: 280. I have it as 280. I
25 have it as 280.

1 THE COURT: Interrogatories; the ones are listed in
2 281. Look at -- look at docket -- we want to be on the same
3 page. Look at docket number 293. That's my -- what I'm going
4 to. That's your -- that's -- as far as I'm concerned, anything
5 that is included in 293 is waived because I asked you to update
6 based upon what went on with Judge Seeborg.

7 So 280 is discovery requests to Cornerstone and those seem
8 to me were document requests. And then in 281, you had all
9 these interrogatories.

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: You're right. These were
11 because that's -- 280 was discovery to Cornerstone.

12 THE COURT: Oh, I see.

13 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And then 281 was discovery to 14 Ms. Anderson.

15 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

16 So what's left on 281 now that you've gone through all
17 their documents and figured it out?

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Again, everything has been 19 produced as far as documents except for one thing; that is, the 20 49 and 50. And the argument made is that they need to 21 discredit assertions that one of our experts, Mr. Levin has 22 which is that Larry James had control over the financial 23 practices.

24 However, since the letter was written, we've withdrawn
25 Mr. Levin as an expert and agreed he would not testify so I

1 don't think these are --

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, it's not simply
4 Mr. Levin.

5 THE COURT: Forget it. Forget it. Don't worry about
6 it. Produce those.

7 So I want you -- I'm going to -- with respect to the
8 documents that are included in number 280, I'm going to deny it
9 except I'm going to order you to produce documents responsive
10 to document requests number 49 and 50.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: With respect to 280, your
12 Honor, they agreed in the filing that they would supplement
13 responsive interrogatory number two, but we have not yet
14 received that.

15 THE COURT: Okay. So that -- you're going to 16 supplement number two. You are also ordered to supplement
17 number two.

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correct.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Rog number two.

20 So with respect to Ms. Anderson, it seems to me that --
21 let's see. Cornerstone has agreed to supplement rogs 8 through
22 17; right?

23 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Or 281.

24 THE COURT: 281 on my reading.

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes. I'm sorry. Yes.

1 THE COURT: Cornerstone shall supplement
2 interrogatories 8 through 17. James has withdrawn 6 and 7;
3 that leaves 1 through 5.

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: 1, 4 through 5, and --
5 actually, 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.

6 THE COURT: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. 1 through 5. Okay.

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And we assert that 1, 4
8 through 5 show Ms. Anderson's control of the accounting
9 practices. And we believe numbers 2 and 3 respond to James'
10 salary, which survives summary judgment.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And number five; what's five --
12 what is five ask for? I don't have the interrogatory in front
13 of me.

14 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I apologize. This is a
15 request for admission for -- dated from 2003 to 2012. You
16 instructed Cornerstone to withhold deposit checks received in 17 December until the following fiscal --

18 THE COURT: No, no, no. These are interrogatories.

19 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I have it. I can read it if 20 you'd like.

21 THE COURT: Would you please interrogatory number
22 five.

23 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Identify each financial 24 transaction between Associated Health Professionals Inc, and 25 Cornerstone from 2003 to the present.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. These are all denied. You
2 can issue produce -- the -- you should supplement 8 through 17;
3 the rest are denied. Not relevant to the class and the things
4 in the case.

5 Production of all documents. Let me see. Okay. Update me
6 on where you are on this.

7 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, what they did, your
8 Honor, were ordered these items produced.

9 THE COURT: Correct.

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And what they did was produce
11 a whole new set of Bate stamps what we thought were 12 supplemental. So we went through and found that that -- the 13 privileged logs they produced were, again, completely messed
14 up. They identified documents that weren't there. They say
15 document -- they described documents that were redacted that 16 weren't the documents described in the rog.

17 They've done another supplemental in, I think it was early 18 March this year. And what they have left us with is instead of 19 just producing the un-redacted versions of hundreds and 20 hundreds of e-mails, they've produced an entirely new set in 21 not the same order so that we have been having a lot of 22 difficulty figuring out which document is it. Is it actually
23 the new document and what -- excuse me -- the un-redacted
24 document and which document is the completely new production.

25 They've -- it seems like an intentional effort to make it

1 difficult to review these documents. And it -- we -- what we
2 expected to get was an un-redacted version of the same Bate
3 numbered document.

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, what we did is
5 supplement -- we -- there were a lot of problems with the log.
6 That is correct.

7 Before the meet and confer I sent reviewed logs and revised
8 production. At the meet and confer, he didn't provide me
9 specific documents that he had trouble with. He did in the 10 letter so I went through --

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- each of the documents he
13 gave specifically identifies here -- and I have them with me --
14 that show that either they were produced or the log was 15 corrected.

16 So, I mean, all I can do is tell you what he wrote here and 17 I have answers to each one of these numbers here.

18 THE COURT: All right. Well, it says do that before
19 you leave today --

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay.

21 THE COURT: -- with him.

22 So subject to the meet and confer of the parties on an 23 explanation of the redaction logs, page 282 is denied.

24 279; I guess I don't understand what's left here. The --
25 let me just get it in front of me here. Okay. So what's left

1 of this issue?

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Just the documents that were
3 withheld in connection with Mr. Yaley (phonetic) and the other
4 miscellaneous which I -- documents -- I guess were attachments
5 to the various e-mails that would pertain to Mr. Yaley
6 (phonetic).

7 THE COURT: So -- and the -- okay.

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And I guess for purposes of 9 this, I can simplify it perhaps, your Honor?

10 THE COURT: Please.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: For all -- whatever your 12 ruling is on the Yaley (phonetic) documents, we'll accept as -- 13 my understanding is that the deploy, the second category, are 14 attachments that were not put underneath the individual e-mail.
15 Like, for example, it could be a Yaley (phonetic) e-mail number
16 one and there would have been some attachments that would say
17 deploy.

18 So whatever your ruling is on the Yaley (phonetic)
19 documents, I'll accept, of course. If there was an attachment
20 to that e-mail, then I'm fine with that.

21 THE COURT: Okay. So this is -- this is the scope of 22 the -- whether or not there can be a privilege as to 23 communications with Yaley (phonetic); is that -- that's this 24 issue?

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correct.

1 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That's correct, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And the test is whether or not
3 documents are germane to the subject matter on which an expert
4 has offered an opinion; right?

5 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correct.

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That, as well as 26 (4) --
7 (b) (4) (c). If these are communications with the -- an expert.

8 THE COURT: Well, they have to be communications with 9 an expert. Yaley (phonetic) is an expert.

10 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Right. Those are privileged,
11 though.

12 THE COURT: Well, no. Communications actually with 13 an expert are not privileged if they're germane to the subject
14 matter of their opinion; right?

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, if it's something they 16 considered and relied upon, then it would not be privileged.
17 But if it's just communications about the general subject
18 matter; if it's -- if it's some sort of document that they 19 created or that was given to them, then it would not be 20 privileged, but the document would not be. I'm talking about 21 an attach. But the communications with them about this, unless 22 we're asking them to assume facts or something like that, then
23 that would not be privileged.

24 THE COURT: That's ridiculous. I mean, there's 25 no -- well, I don't understand what's left then. What are you

1 saying is still privileged? You write to your expert and 2 you -- on -- and it's in the area that he's testifying on.

3 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, Stoley (phonetic) is
4 going to be an area that he testified.

5 THE COURT: Of course.

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Under 20 -- under
7 communications with your expert are going to remain privileged
8 under 26 (b) (4) (c) unless they're pertaining to assumptions
9 we're asking him to make. There's a whole list of items.

10 THE COURT: That's not what the case law says.

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: That's what the Federal Rules
12 say.

13 THE COURT: No, it's not what the Federal Rules say.
14 Show me.

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: The -- I don't have the -- I'm
16 referring to 26 (b) (4) (c), your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Okay. I'll look at it. I have it here.
18 26 (b) (4) (c). 26 (b) (4) (c).

19 (Whereupon there was a pause in the proceedings.)

20 THE COURT: 26 (a) (c) says -- 26 (b) (3) (a) and (b).
21 26 (b) (3) (a); (a) and (b); are trial preparation materials
22 productions. Protect communications between parties' attorney
23 and any witness required to court report under 26 (a) (b) (2).
24 That's expert witnesses. (A) (2) (b); (a) (2) (b) is witnesses who 25 must provide a written report and that's the -- of people who

1 are retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony.
2 That would be this person regardless of the form of the 3 communication.

4 So they're protected as a work product or other except to 5 the extent they relate to the compensation, identify facts, or 6 data that the parties' attorney provided in that expert -- and 7 that expert considered in forming the opinion to be expressed
8 or identified assumptions that the parties' attorney provide 9 any expert relied on.

10 So why are these documents any of those three?

11 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, it says prepare -- I
12 don't have it in front of me. You said considered or prepared
13 or something like that.

14 THE COURT: That the expert identify facts or data
15 that the parties' attorney provided and at the expert
16 considered in forming the opinions. Have you taken this 17 expert's depo?

18 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: No.

19 THE COURT: Really?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: They declined to take experts.

21 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: We don't --

22 THE COURT: Wow. So how -- what evidence do you have 23 that he considered any of these things?

24 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, counsel's own statement
25 that is that anything that he relied on is related germane to

1 the issues in the case.

2 THE COURT: I -- no, no. His statement is that it's
3 on the subject matter of those opinions, yes.

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correct. And that the
5 standard articulated in Reyes is that the test in the Northern 6 District is whether the documents reviewed or generated by the 7 expert could reasonably be viewed as germane to the subject
8 matter.

9 And counsel has agreed that anything they've talked about
10 is germane to the subject matter. Now, we have to decide
11 whether the documents were reviewed or generated by the expert.
12 What we have here are e-mails to and from him. So clearly he 13 reviewed those.

14 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Correction, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Yes. So his -- so your theory is that 16 under Reyes if you can show that the subject matter of the 17 e-mails is on the subject matter of the testimony, it's a fair
18 inference that it was considered by the expert in terms of 19 their opinion and that's where Judge Briar read Reyes; right?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: And, your Honor, just to note;
21 the Federal Rules were amended in 2010 to include these
22 provisions here that I'm talking about.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: So Reyes -- the analysis in 25 Reyes is not entirely --

1 THE COURT: Well --

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- applicable --

3 THE COURT: That's not --

4 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- to the current rules.

5 THE COURT: Why not?

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Because --

7 THE COURT: It's got 26 (a) (2) (b) .

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yeah. They knew -- you
9 have -- I don't know if you have the history, but the rules
10 were amended to free up attorneys from having to work -- worry
11 about all their communications with their experts, via e-mail
12 or letter, were going to eventually disclose. They were in 13 efforts to make expert -- the use of experts more efficient.

14 THE COURT: What's the date of the Reyes opinion?

15 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: 2007.

16 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: 2007.

17 THE COURT: Okay. And so I have got the 2010
18 amendments. 26 (a) (2) (b); (a) (2) -- we're talking about 4(c);
19 right?

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Yes.

21 THE COURT: (A) (2) and (b) (4). This is (b) (4). This
22 is (b) (4) are amended. (A) (2) (b); (a) (2) (b); (a) (2) (b) (4);
23 (b) (4) (b); (b) (4) (c). We want (b) (4) (c) is (inaudible). Why
24 isn't that right?

25 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I was not aware of that if

1 that's the case.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I can tell you that I did
4 shepardize this case and found a case, I believe it was 5 post-2010, that adopted the same rule. He didn't raise that 6 argument in the papers.

7 THE COURT: I understand. I'm going -- I'll read to 8 you what it says in the 2010 amendments. The commentary says
9 (b) (4) (c) is added to provide work product protection for 10 attorney-client -- attorney-expert communications regardless of 11 the form of the communication or their oral or written or 12 electronic or otherwise.

13 The addition of 26 (b) (4) (c) is designed to protect
14 counsel's work product and ensure that lawyers may interact 15 with retained experts without fear of exposing those 16 communications to searching discovery.

17 Protection is limited to communications between expert
18 witness required to provide a report as necessary and the 19 attorney for the party have the witnesses testifying including 20 preliminary experts opinions.

21 Protected communications include those between the parties'
22 attorney and assistance of the expert.

23 (Whereupon there was a pause in the proceedings.)

24 THE COURT: So it's got to fall within the 25 specialized exceptions now. Let's see.

1 (Whereupon there was a pause in the proceedings.)

2 THE COURT: Yeah. I mean, it has got -- it's now
3 limited to communications that are on compensation or identify
4 assumption or identify facts or data that the parties' attorney
5 provided and the expert considered in forming the opinions to 6 be expressed.

7 And why doesn't that answer the question here?

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Well, off the top of my head,
9 I would say that some of these communications in the log are 10 not involving the attorneys so I don't know how that would 11 apply to those communications. But on -- again, I wasn't
12 prepared for this because it wasn't briefed, but I know I --

13 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Incorrect, your Honor.

14 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: I know I looked at this case
15 when I shepardize it. I believe there was a recent case that 16 applied the Reyes standard.

17 Now, from memory I can't recall exactly what it said, but
18 I feel like -- I'm, you know, being put on the spot --

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: -- to talk about the case.

21 THE COURT: Yes. Well, that's what we do here.

22 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: It was briefed on page four,
23 your Honor.

24 THE COURT: No, no, no, I know. It's briefed --
25 specifically briefed in this case. So -- okay. Motion to

1 number -- what docket number is this?

2 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: 279.

3 THE COURT: 279 is denied.

4 Okay. So you guys are going to talk about that one cleanup
5 on -- on the log?

6 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: With Danis.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. And then we're done. All right.

8 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Your Honor, my -- I'd like to 9 kind of, perhaps with some compassionate a little begging, have 10 an opportunity to just to address one issue. I apologize for 11 all the work that this case has caused you.

12 THE COURT: No, no. I don't -- you shouldn't
13 apologize for the work. It's not the work that bothers me. I
14 love this job. I love the work. What I don't like is when you
15 squabble over trivia. So don't squabble over trivia. I'll 16 give you 30 seconds to make your point.

17 UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER: Okay. We're not squabbling
18 over trivia. We have page after page of charts where one of 19 the things that I think that you're frustrated with payments to 20 Monster.com or Go Daddy or something like that.

21 Why do you want all these source documents? Because there
22 are listed as damages they're seeking out of Mr. James for 23 mismanagement of the company.

24 Often times very particularized. We want those source
25 documents to say what the memo says about who was paid for and

1       why.

2               THE COURT:   Okay.   Well, then his response is they
3       were all produced.

4               UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:   Okay.   Then I think that is a
5       good frame-up of the issue.   I didn't want you to think this 6       was a purposeful trivia campaign.

7               THE COURT:   I'm not going to deny on the basis of its
8       being trivial; I'm denying on the basis that there's no
9       evidence that hasn't been produced.

10              UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:   That was the understanding I
11       was thinking.   Thank you.

12              THE COURT:   Okay.   Great.   Thank you.

13              UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:   Thank you.

14              UNIDENTIFIED SPEAKER:   Thank you.   Have a good
15       evening.

16              THE CLERK:   Court's now in recess.

              (Proceedings concluded at 5:10 p.m.)
